Miss Piggy and Kermit said in the statement. "However, our personal lives are now distinct and separate, and we will be seeing other people, pigs, frogs, et al. This is our only comment on this private matter...unless we get the right offer. Thank you for your understanding."

Kermit and Miss Piggy will star together this fall on the reboot series The Muppets. Kermit and Miss Piggy are back together, professionally, at least.

Kermit told The Guardian about the seperation "It's not easy. It's not as easy as being green, I'll tell you that," and he added "We can be professionals. Well, one of us can. Me,"

Earlier this year, Miss Piggy and Kermit appeared at the Brooklyn Museum together for Miss Piggy's Elizabeth A. Sackler Center of Feminist Art's First Award.

The 67th Primetime Emmy Awards will air live on Fox on Sept. 20.
